Varun Sabharwal Chief of product management, LC Adroit Vancege, India a rich and satisfactory learning experience has passed a long time since I had the professional development opportunity as rigorous and rich as the Stanford Design Thinking course. We have deepened the design process with colleagues, facilitators and stanford faculty, creating our prototypes and receiving direct feedback on our work. Marcus Goodyear Senior Director of Communications, H. E. Butt Foundation, uses the program was an open eyes for me. The DT program has opened a new dimension of possibility on as Brainstorming, conceived and launch new products. Brainstorming and Business Model Canvas were a change of change. Our company uses these techniques to launch new IT products in the Australian sector of small and medium -sized enterprises. It was a great investment. Jit Anbu founder and CEO, Sprint Networks, Australia perfect program to connect innovation with the company result. The program is very enriching with great content. I would suggest this program to anyone interested in learning design thinking in a structured way. Manmohan Singh Rehti CEO, Thakral Gulf Free, UAE an enriching learning experience by the facilitators of the courses The Curriculum of the course, the assignment programs, and to have the facilitator of the course as a coach made the course interesting and helped immensely to learn and experiment. The reference materials, executions, videos and guides were equally useful. Professor Stefanos provided a clear understanding of the concepts and their applications in solving the problems of the real world. Soumeria Mobanty Chief Strategy Officer & Chief Information Officer, Trendence Inc., India Design the program of thought has A paradigm change towards the solution of problems The program modules were well cared for. Sankar Sai Pitta Senior Sales Manager, 3M, India Well packaged program with a good number of hands-on projects As an engineer, I always thought of eAAHowAAA while finding solutions. The hands on projects helped me empathize with the user and think of eAAWhereeAAA and eAAAWhyeAAA part of user pain points to understand feasibility & viability of a solution to become an innovation. Neetha U Prabhu Senior Program Manager, Daimler Truck Innovation Center, India Program provides plenty of opportunities to apply to real-world problems Program is very intuitive and easy to follow. It goes way beyond standard training and backed by knowledgeable faculty and professionals. Cynthia Evans Ex-Business Architect, Australia People must attend this program to achieve career success The program was innovative and eAAThe eight step moduleeAAA used to achieve desired results was mind boggling. I am using these techniques in my business already. I am sure that many will attend this program to achieve success in their lives. Suunil Rathi Managing Director, Rathi Dye Chem Pvt. Ltd., India World-class Instructional design and program management Great Learning managed this program so efficiently that a huge cohort present at multiple geo locations never felt a difference. Though it was an online executive program, we benefited 100% because of the world-class instruction design and program management. I wish success to your excellent team. Priy Dwivedi PhD Assistant Professor, National University of Science and Technology, Oman Liked the way it was majorly practical I liked that the program was practical, especially when we were given tools and templates. Also the follow-up from the program team was always timely and appreciated. He helped me not miss out on any part of the program. Amauch Chidozie Consultant - Human Capital Development, Nigeria The program helped identify needs and find root causes to a problem We were losing orders to our competitors and were not able to find reason. The process I learnt during program helped me to find the underlying need and a solution for it. Abhijit Shelge Project Engineer, Nexgen Hygiene Systems Pvt. Ltd., India The program helped me understand real client challenges and design solutions they would love I've a new organization that has decided to launch a new product offering as a part of its 2020 vision. This is a perfect opportunity to use my new skillset. Ekta Kamdar Lead Product Manager, Mindbody, India I learnt the whole method of innovation I learnt the importance of finding a valid problem and how to develop a proper strategy to fix it with every stakeholder in mind. Pritivi Iyer Strategy, One Digital Entertainment, India Design Thinking can be applied to solve any business problem The best part is, we can gain early market insights and test our thought process to refine solutions based on the user feedback. Currently using this to reduce the attrition of high performing team members. Namah Pandey Chief Consultant, Design, EY, India Design Thinking drove me to a path to solutions that can be applied to any problem I feel that it is a very inclusive prototype that will help me extract results on issues related to marketing, HR, production, sales procurement and logistics.
